—OR—

THE DESTROYED LETTER.

BY E. B——.

"How beautiful Belle Loclain looks tonight."

They were sitting together at chess, Daisy Marsh and her handsome cousin, Romney Elting, while beyond the curtained box window, which sheltered their retreat, the parlors of the noble mansion were all in a glow of light and jewels. Daisy was a pretty creature, with fair hair and a pink and white complexion, as perfect and expressionless as a wax doll, while Romney was dark and strikingly handsome. Even as he spoke, Daisy's hand quivered a little, and her sleeve upset half a dozen chessmen.

"There they go!" laughed Romney. "Never mind, Daisy; you had very nearly conquered me, and we'll consider it a victory on your part. I don't like chess just now. See, Miss Loclain is passing again."

"Yes," said Daisy, who resented the least admiration of any other lady on her cousin's part, "she's a very stylish looking girl, only I don't fancy her gipsey sort of beauty, and——"

She stopped short, for Romney's eyes were fixed on her with an expression very unusual.

"Daisy," said he, gravely, "I wish to speak to you on a subject of the greatest importance to me—a subject that lies very near my heart."

Daisy's cheeks grew red and white alternately, while her pulses paused within. Could it be possible that the love she had so long secretly entertained towards her cousin, was at last to be rewarded? Did he really love her?

"I may trust you, my little cousin?"

"Of course, Romney," she answered, timidly lifting her eyes to his dark, earnest glance.

"Well, then, I'm in love!"

The scarlet tide suddenly suffused her neck, checks and brow, while her eyelashes drooped low with delicious shyness.

"Now don't blush so, Daisy; I'm not the first man that ever fell in love, nor nor am I likely to be the last. I haven't courage to await my doom from Belle's own lips, yet I must know before I sail for Europe, whether life is to be a rose garden, or a dreary desert. Will you be my messenger, Daisy! Will you take this note to Belle Loclain, and bring me her reply?"

A statue could not have been whiter and colder than Daisy Marsh, as she listened to the concluding sentences, that fell like ice upon her heart. She could have plunged a dagger, cheerfully, into the heart of the woman who had won Romney's love. Anger, mortification, and keenest anguish strove together for mastery in her heart, yet there was no outward symptom, save the deathlike pallor of her cheek, and the quiver of her lip.

"Will you, Daisy?" persisted Romney.

She nodded silently.

"That's my darling, little cousin! Give her the note to-night—you women know how to manage such things—and if she will be mine, ask her to send a line—one line will be all sufficient. But if not——" He stopped and bit his lips, as if the bare contemplation of such a possibility were agony. "If not, I shall understand her silence to mean no. Here is the note, ma chere. To think that a man's whole destiny should hang on a bit of paper like that?"

As he placed the folded note in her hand, it felt like ice.

"Daisy, you are not well?"

"Perfectly," she answered, in a constrained voice; "but I am a little tired. I will go up to my room, and see Miss Loclain when she leaves the parlor."

When she was alone in her own apartment, she tore the paper into tiny bits, with slow deliberation, and burned them, one by one, in the flickering gaslight.

"There," she said, biting her lips until the blood started. "She shall never know that he was mad enough to prefer her dark eyes, and jet-black hair, to my blonde beauty!"

That same evening Belle Loclain, unbraiding the masses of dark hair that had gleamed with pearls and opals, raised her dreamy, Spanish eyes to the glass before her—eyes that were dim with unshed tears.

"He does not care for me," she murmured, "yet the world calls me beautiful. Ah! what care I for the world's admiration, as long as the only one for whose praise I sigh, turns coldly from me? I suppose he will marry that brighthaired, little cousin of his, and they will be happy, while I——"

She stopped abruptly, and hid her sweet, flushed face in her hands.

"Well, Daisy?" eagerly asked Romney Elting, as he met his cousin on the stairs next morning.

"Well?"

"Was there no answer?"

"None."

The color faded from Romney's cheek, leaving a dull, deadly paleness behind. He clasped his hand involuntarily over his heart.

"So be it," he murmured, in a strangely changed voice. "And now, ho! for Europe; this country no longer holds a charm for me."

Daisy lost her cousin, yet she had the malicious satisfaction of knowing that Belle Loclain had lost something nearer and dearer still.

Three years after, Mr. Mordaunt's elegant drawing-rooms were brilliantly lighted one night, as Romney Elting paid his respects, with easy courtesy, to his pretty, silly, little hostess.

"I am so glad you come to-night, Mr. Elting, Your cousin, Miss Marsh, is to be here.

"Indeed! I haven't seen Daisy since my return; I——"

Romney Elting's tongue seemed smitten with sudden palsy at that instant. He had caught sight of a tall, slender figure in black, at the end of the room, with two or three children clinging to her.

"Who is that lady, Mrs. Mordaunt? That one sitting beyond the pinao? Surely not——"

"That? Oh, that is Miss Loclain, our governess. I believe you did know her once, before her father failed. Quite a nice creature—and the children are so fond of her."

Romney Elting walked straight across the room; there was a magnetic influence in the pale check and downcast eye of the fragile-looking governess.

"Miss Loclain, have you forgotten an old friend?"

"I do not so easily forget the few friends I have left, Mr. Elting."

"I am glad to see you, Miss Loclain," he resumed; "more so than I ever thought I could be again."

"Why?" she asked, raising her frank eyes to his face. She colored.

"Because, since you rejected me——"

"Rejected you, Mr. Elting?"

"Well, declined to answer my note, then—it amounts to the same thing."

"Your note! I have never received a note from you!"

"Did not my cousin give you a note from me the evening before I sailed for Europe?"

"Certainly not."

"Then, Belle, you did not know how dearly I loved you?"

"I never dreamed it, Mr. Elting."

"Some treachery has been practiced on us both," he muttered; "a treachery that has dearly cost me a life's happiness. Tell me, Belle, is it too late for me to plead my cause? for I love you more than ever, dearest."

The dark, Spanish eyes filled with tears; the cheek grew crimson, and then paled again.

"Speak, dearest: tell me that I may hope."

"Romney," she murmured, "I have loved you ever since you went away; I love you still."

And when Miss Daisy Marsh entered, looking in her pale-blue silk dress and pearls, like morning itself, she was very much surprised to see the perfect understanding which seemed to be established between her cousin Romney and Mrs. Mordaunt's pale governess.

"Romney," she whispered, at the first opportunity she found of exchanging a word with him, "you surely are not going to throw yourself away on that girl?"

"My dear Daisy," said Romney, serenely, "we have picked up the thread of affairs just where it was dropped, when you neglected to deliver my note, three years ago. Be easy, Daisy; your manœuvering is all discovered, and further remark on your part is unnecessary, unless you wish your conduct to be exposed to the world."

Daisy cowered before his stern glance, and when, two or three weeks subsequently, she received the wedding cards of Mr. and Mrs. Romney Elting, she contented herself with saying.

"Romney was always odd; but, after all, Belle is a very sweet girl!"

Poor Daisy! It was rather hard for her to sink into old Maidhood, while Belle Loclain was a happy wife; but there seemed to be no help for it.

Political.

To the People of North Carolina.

Following the example set by their political opponents, the Republican Party have instructed its Executive Committee to address you in relation to the proposed convention.

It is very much against our wishes that you have been precipitated into a campaign upon this delicate and important subject. The State during the past ten years has been subjected to the experiments of various political doctors, and what seems most needed now, is repose and quiet,—an opportunity for the operation of nature's soothing and restorative powers, rather than a resort to new pills and potions, however confidently recommended. On the contrary, the Conservative Party produces in great plenty lancets, blisters, drugs—both emetical and purgative, patent medicines guaranteed by many certificates, and a glittering array of surgical instruments,—the upshot of all which is that North Carolina is once more to be subjected to active treatment.

It seems that conventions are to become of ordinary occurrence in this State. Mr. Jefferson has been generally denounced by conservative men for having advised that State conventions should be called once in every twenty years. Here, however, in about one-half of that space we have had (including that now pending) no less than five elections upon the subject of conventions, and if the one now proposed shall be called (which Heaven forbid!) from these elections have resulted four separate sovereign conventions. It is obvious to ask, If the three conventions already encountered have reduced the State so low, what will become of her after she has been submitted to the tender mercies of a fourth!

It has occurred to all men who labor, whether with hands or head, now and then to find themselves unaccountably unfitted for work which ordinarily is easy. At times nothing goes right. The brain and hand seem to have lost their cunning. Blunder follows blunder. Under such circumstances it becomes wisdom to withdraw the attention, and go about something else. By so doing we see ourselves in a short time restored to power, and are enabled easily to triumph over the obstacles which just before had overcome us: we even wonder how it was that they had given us trouble. May this not sometimes happen to whole communities of men, as well as to individuals? Has not North Carolina, for the last ten years, been in just such a condition? We ask this question upon the Conservative theory. If it be true, as said by them, that nothing but blunders have followed all this ten years of endeavor by North Carolina to amend her fundamental institutions,—had she not better lay the task aside, and await the coming of a season in which her brain will be clearer, her nerves more steady, her temper less ruffled, and her hand under better control!

Such is the advice which we most respectfully tender the People. As the State is most clearly out of sorts for Constitution making, let her for a while lay this business aside!

To the same effect we would add, if the loud adverse clamor upon this subject will permit us to be heard, that the present Constitution is by no means the monster which it is represented. In very important respects it is an improvement upon any Constitution that we have ever had, and in no respect is it one that cannot be borne with until the community has reached a period more propitious for impartial consideration. Conceding that it needs amendment in substantial particulars, is such concession more than a common place, applicable to all our constitutions, State and Federal, and indeed to every political constitution that has existed in any age or country.

Before taking the very cursory view of this instrument, which is all that the limits of an address will permit, allow us to remind you that the mighty political violence to which we have been subjected since 1861, resulted in casting North Carolina society, after 1865, upon an unknown shore. Everything around is strange. The social machinery of our old forms of life does not suit here. What was political wisdom there, in many respects, is not so here. Perhaps even the wise men of that condition of things are not the wise men of our present, and will not be so in our immediate future. If the character for wisdom in question were founded upon familiarity with the relations and proportions of the structure that has passed away, than it has perished along with them; and to call the possessors of such a quality to the conduct of that complicated machinery which now bears our fortunes, were as prudent, as under other circumstances it might be to call upon one heretofore known as a trusty wagon driver, to become at once engineer for a Lightning Express Passenger Train. There is, however, a quality more worthy of the sacred name of wisdom, which would, on such occasions, prove to be most valuable. If a citizen had studied, and been inspired by the great theme of human Liberty, divested of all such circumstances as are merely technical, accidental and transitory, if, whilst jealous for his own peace and freedom, he prized aright the peace and freedom of all other citizens of whatever color or lineage, if the beatings of his heart had been taught to keep time with that famous saying uttered by a dark skinned man in Athens two thousand years ago, which, endued with greater vitality, and winged by a loftier eloquence than any other saying that had preceded it upon that renowned spot, has circled the Earth, and visited both Poles, gathering new strength with the lapse of ages, and bearing richer fruit with every returning season,—to wit, that God has made of one blood all nations of men; if, in fine, his lessons had taught him to gaze with unabated delight upon that glorious scene within this Republic, on which the curtain rises higher from day to day, bearing in his heart all parts of the assemblage, and gifted with an eyesight so purged and unscaled as to be engrossed with the brilliance of the object rather than offended by its spots, then, of such a one it may be said that there was not so much room as need!

Was there in all our borders such a man? If not, then, without disparaging the just claims of our more distinguished fellow-citizens,—It was not of their assistance that our society had most need. This new wine was not for their old bottles.

Our fundamental institutions required for sure laying, workmen who were not trammelled by ideas peculiar to the former state of things in North Carolina. However such men might fail upon certain details, their work would not be affected by the deadly sin of a failure to correspond with the situation; whilst, upon the other hand, however skilful might have been the details of the work by our own good men, it would have been utterly cursed by being unconformable to, and unsusceptible of union with, our new society. The chances therefore, are that the parties stigmatized as carpet-baggers scalawags and negroes, had some qualities for framing a new Constitution for North Crrolina, that were in advance of those possessed by many of the best educated and most distinguished of our own citizens! It is probably that our posterity, and history, will pronounce that the Constitution of 1868, had less unsuitableness to the true condition and the people of North Carolina than any paper that would probably have been drafted by the best of our native citizens. It will be said that it sympathized with the new social life that had sprung up and was to continue,—whereas that sympathy was the very point of disgust and aversion with those whose theories had taken color and proportion from the former North Carolina.

A consideration and digestion of such questions in the only wise temper—that of travelers—will, we are persuaded, entitle the constitution to a favorable judgement, and render a consideration of its most important details light work.

TOWNSHIPS.

Take, for instance the new system of county government, including townships. It is generally supposed that townships are a yankee invention imported into North Carolina as a badge of subjugation, and machinery for oppression. The truth is that they are a feature which for more than twelve centuries, as all students of English law know, have marked that free society from which we have borrowed the substantial parts of our own. The most philosophic foreigner who has discussed American institutions, one whose decision upon various portions of our system seem at the end of the forty years which have passed since he wrote, possessed of prophetic glance, (De Tocqueville,) regards the township as a very corner stone of social liberty in this country, as well as in that from which it was introduced. It is known that a like subdivision of counties was recommended by Mr. Jefferson; and it is remarkable that in the early settlement of North Carolina the same ideas were carried out. They disappeared before the revolution, probably under the growing influence of our slave interest. It deserves consideration whether that influence did not naturally substitute the slave plantation in place of the township. The township, according to De Tocqueville, is the germ of, and supplies vital force to the only free societies that have endured for centuries. Is not the plantation its correlative, in slave societies? The communion, free speech, and local self-control of the one, naturally grows, in the society at large, to a free Press, a Parliament, and the other noble institutions which mark the conscious presence and free movement of a self-governing People. The isolation, restraint and combined independence and constraint of the many, that distinguished the plantation, were, on the other hand, noless seen and felt to the extremities of the other societies. What was peace in the one, in the other was mere solitude.

Merely suggestions then that the township of 1771 was the proper substitute in North Carolina, for the plantation of 1861, we submit that its introduction here, which in carpet-baggers was mere habit or instinct, in a North Carolian would have been proof of profound reflection and wisdom. For the rest, the Township is a small and natural republic made up of neighbors,—of those who have great similarity of interest, and who ought to be, and generally are, friends. It controls matters in which they only are interested. Incidentally, it promotes public spirit, prevents consolidation of county matters at the court house, develops talent in rural communities, brings forward good material for public servants that would otherwise remain unknown, and, what observers of such things will not underrate, it affords, in the organized circle of its neighbors, that machinery for forcing forward and upward local merit, in the absence of which promotion so much depends upon the reluctant favor of court house cliques.

Pressed by such reflections which no doubt have often occurred to them, our opponents whilst specifying this township system as a main objection to the present constitution, admit that it works well in other parts of our country, adding that this is because they are populous, intelligent and wealthy, which we are not! How very poor a shift this may be for an argument to countenance unfounded prejudices, appears by recalling the fact that they were adopted where they now flourish, at times when those countries were thinly settled, grossly ignorant, and very poor! They have grown to their present prosperity under the influence of this institution. Long covered centuries ago when thick darkness all people, before printing was invented, when people who could read were as rare as in this country now are men who own their million of dollars, the Township took form. What its splendid story has since been history tells! What, the bright consummate flower that now adorns it in the spot where it sprung up, is seen and known by all men!

It is natural that there should be some yearning after the plantation, throughout North Carolina. Many virtuous people no doubt struggle with the forbidden appetite. One step towards its retoration would properly be the abolition of the township. We enter our protest against it! Under our Constitution the township is very much under the control of the General Assembly. Its powers, until we become more used to the new county machinery, may be clipped very close by the Assembly, and then by degrees new functions may be added, until at last all merely local affairs be entrusted to its control. Such is our proposal, instead of its abolishments by a Convention.

The other county machinery is so obviously an improvement upon former methods, that its consideration need not detain us. The difference between being taxed by our representatives,—those whom we voted for, and who have to come before us again, and render an account,—as is the case with county commissioners—is, beyond all measure, an improvement upon the former system of county taxation, by an irresponsible and partially distributed bench of magistrates.

CHANGES IN LAWS.

It was to be expected that a number of shrewd lawyers, rendered skilful in such matters of old experience, in the defence of criminals, would be able to say something worthy of their reputation in defence of the old system of Law and Equity,—of Trespass, Case and Detinue, and other caitiffs,—as against the system recently introduced. Let it be remembered that the Code is no part of the Constitution. That may be altered as the General Assembly shall think best. What the Constitution provides, is only the abolishment of two sets of courts,—Law and Equity, and of the different forms of action. That it has done so, is a mighty stride in civilization! It is an improvement already adopted in a dozen of the most intelligent, wealthy and populous States of the Union. No one that has tried the change, has gone back to the former condition of things. Even in England, the cradle of the old forms, after mere amendments, (although upon an enormous scale,) had been tried with slight effect for forty years; the Lord Chancellor has in charge, with the sanction of the government, bills to effect this very purpose; and, what is more, to adopt the system of pleadings of the New York Code! The change is a very great amelioration, and in the course of a few years, will universally be so regarded. The benefits which the People receive from the Constitution of

OUR CONSTITUTION A GOOD ONE.

The more we study our Constitution and compare it with others the more do we become convinced not only that it compares quite favorably with that of other States, but that it is very well adapted to the condition and wants of our people. All that it needs is a full, fair, and unrestricted operation. Ever since its adoption it has met the determined opposition of those who would reverse the engine of Progress, blot out the new order of things and go back to the old. Because of this factious opposition the Constitution has never been fairly tested. Its provisions are wise, liberal and progressive. Considering the circumstances surrounding them we marvel that its framers promulgated an instrument with so few defects. It is a wonderful improvement on the old Constitution. The more we study it the better we like it.

We like it because it establishes universal suffrage.

We like it because under it all men, the rich and the poor, the high and the low, are eligible to office.

We like it because it makes population —mind and muscle—the basis of equal representation in the General Assembly.

We like it because it secures a Homestead and personal property exemptions of $1,500 to the poor people of the State, secures married women their rights of property, and protects the mechanic and laborer in a just lein.

We like it because it gives the people power and control over their public securities, and because it distinguishes against no one class in favor of others as the old Constitution did.

We like it because it provides for the election of all public officers by the people, at short and stated periods, and thus makes every man, in every place of honor or trust, directly responsible to the people.

We like it because it has destroyed the senseless and unmeaning difference of jurisdiction between Courts of law and Courts of equity, and because it has consolidated the offices connected with the Courts, lessened the number of officers and thereby diminished the cost of legal proceedings.

We might go on enumerating almost ad infinitum why we like our "Constitution as it is," but it is needless. Will the people willingly surrender it over into the hands of a Convention for a change? We think not.

HOISTED BY THEIR OWN PETARD.

The Democratic Conventionists prate about the power of the people. What! they, cannot the people call a Convention when they please? And yet instead of allowing the sovereigns, about which they orate so much, to vote for or against a Convention, they prescribe in their Act that they may vote "under the restrictions here inafter prescribed." Thus it will be seen that the people—the sovereign people are not allowed to say what Constitution they desire, but only to make amendments, under such restrictions as the Democratic members of the Legislature see fit to impose! In one breath they talk about the sovereign will of the people: in the next they say they are not to be trusted!! They must be restricted; they must be limited; they must be bound!

TO BE EXPOSED.

We are glad to see those highly virtuous individuals who send money to the New York "Sawdust" swindlers in the hope of receiving a return of counterfeit bills are likely to come to grief. Their letters are to be retained and opened at the New York post office, and the name of the writer forwarded to the Post Master where written, with instructions to post it conspicuously in the office with a statement of facts. The idea is a good one, and if carried out some rich developments may be expected. The man who is mean enough to buy conterfeit money with the intention of passing it upon unsuspecting neighbors, is mean enough to steal his neighbors sheep if he thought he would not get found out, and it is right that the public should be informed of his intention.

UNKIND.

The Sentinel has just done a very unkind thing—an act that will detract from the interest the future audiences of Senator LATHAM will feel in the delivery of his "speech." The unkindness consists in publishing an old speech of Speaker JARVIS which the Senator—so we are informed—has committed to memory, spoke at Dare and at other points, and proposed delivering in different parts of the State. Will this oblige him to commit some body else's speech before he can go on with the canvas? We suggest that he request the Hon. B. F. MOORE to write him another one!

The St. Louis Herald wants "a real good boy to make a devil of."

A SUGGESTION TO OUR FARMERS.

In the development and improvement of the Agriculture of this section of the State the NORTH CAROLINIAN has taken a deep and lively interest. The climate, the soil and the proximity to the best markets in the world adapt Eastern North Carolina, especially the counties bordering near the coast, for the best and most profitable farming Country in the United States. That they are not is the fault of the people. They have adopted and persisted in the poorest system of farming known anywhere. They have kept on in the "old beaten track" without any improvement either in preparing the soil, in cultivating it, in tools, improvements or machinery. Hence, of course, they have made but little progress.

Now we desire a change. We know that the soil and all the natural surroundings make it possible for great improvement, and to accomplish this, or as an aid in that direction, we suggest to every reader of the NORTH CAROLINIAN to resolve to experiment a little. If they will agree to do this and report the results to us, a good deal of practical knowledge may be obtained. Let each farmer resolve to try something a little out to the beaten ruts of the "good old way," not upon a large plan where failure would be ruinous, but upon a small scale. Let the experiments be conducted carefully, keep correct accounts and report to us. The kind of soil, time of beginning experiment, brief particulars, cultivating, etc., should be given, and the result as compared with the main crop cultivated in the usual way.

Practical results thus obtained are more convincing than any theory. And it is these practical results enlightened agriculture aims at. Facts, results of experiments, carefully conducted, actual accomplishments and not mere speculations, estimates and "guess work," is the great mission of the progressive farmer and his assistants, whether in labratory or under the blue skies and golden sunshine between the plow handles or over the weeding hoe. Farmers of Pasquotank county and eastern North Carolina, think of this matter and act upon the suggestions.

THE "CARPET BAG" OBJECTIONS.

It is charged by the "Conventionists" that the present Constitution is a "carpet bag" production; that its obnoxious features especially were incorporated into it by "carpet baggers." On questioning them as to what its most obnoxious features are we are informed that one of them is the provision for the election of Judges and Justices of the Peace by the people. We reply to this by informing these gentlemen that this change was first suggested and recommended by that life long and distinguished native North Carolinian and Democrat Hon. DAVID S. REID while Governor of the State. In his message to the general Assembly November 20th 1854 he said:

"The election of Judges and Justices of the Peace by the People, and for terms less than for life, are also questions of reform, which I recommend to the favorable consideration of the General Assembly."

Another objectionable feature they tell us is the substitution of the Township Courts for the old system. We again answer them that this change like the other was suggested and recommended by another North Carolinan, Governor WILLIAM A. GRAHAM. In his message to the General Assembly in 1846-7 he said:

"It is commended to your enquiry whether all jurisdictions of Pleas in the County Courts may not be with advantage abolished, and those Courts be permitted to remain only for purpose of Probate and County Police, with a session of but a single day in each month. By substituting for the present system of County and Superior Courts, with six terms in the year, three terms only of the Superior Court held by Judges learned in the law, an arrangement would be introduced far less expensive to the public, and the parties in legal controversies; while greater dispatch and correctness would be attained in the administration of the law. Such a change would require some addition to the present number of Judges, to whom salaries must needs be paid, but this would be inconsiderable compared to the payments now made to Jurors and Justices attending four Courts a year in the various counties to say nothing of the time spared to all concerned, and the less accumulation of costs on the losing parties from greater expedition in the termination of causes. If all law suits could be ended in one, or at most, two years from their commencement, instead of being, as they often are, transmitted from father to son, loaded with costs far exceeding the value of the original subject of contest, it would be a reform of the greatest importance. The small number of causes on most of the dockets makes the present a favorable period for the introduction of this system which has been adopted and highly approved after trial, in other States of the Union."

Is comment needed?

We are sorry to see that Palemon Johnson editor of the North Carolinian, gives countenance to the barbarous custom of dueling, by publishing in his columns a card intended to lead a challenge from the editor of a rival paper to the author of the card. We expected better things of the former editor of the Bloomsburg Republican—Miltonian (Pa.)

Our old friend and neighbor has done us a great injustice. If he will take the trouble to re-read the article he comments upon he will see that the "card" was copied from another paper, partly as an item of news, but more especially to show that the great Democratic leader of this State, when out of danger, boasts like a Jack Fallstaff, but when tested incontinently shows the white feather. We published it to point a moral and adorn a Democratic tale. As for duelling, we have opposed it in the past; we oppose it still. We believe the duellist to be a murderer, and the "code" to be one of the relics of a state of society, happily fast giving way to the Christian civilization of the age. Will the Miltonian make the amende honorable?

JAMES H. HEADEN Esq., a leader of the Chatham county Conservatives, opposes the majority bill to call a Convention. He believes with the late Judge RUFFIN that a Covention thus called would only be "caucus," unauthorized by law, whose acts would be void.

THE DEMOCRATIC SPLIT IN IOWA.

There is trouble in the Democratic wigwam of Iowa. One portion of the party having reached the conclusion that wherens they had wandered long enough in ways that are crooked and dealt in tricks that are vain, it would be best to make a full confession, and hence they met in State Convention and adopted the "New Departure." The other wing of the party are not prepared for any such confession. Notwithstanding the old couplet,

"He who does one fault at first
And lies to hide it makes it two,"

they are not willing, like Hotspur, to put his Satanic Majesty to the blush by any acknowledgements, and hence have called another State Convention to nominate another Democratic ticket. The Convention is to be held at Des Moines on on the 13th of August. There will be lively times in Iowa.

HISTORY OF THE WAR IN EUROPE.—The National Publishing Co. of Philadelphia, have just issued a very valuable history of the late War between Germany and France, from the pen of one of our most popular writers, Mr. James D. McCabe, Jr.

In a large volume of 800 octavo pages, the author tells a wonderful story—all the stranger because of its truth. He tells of battles which have shaken Europe to its centre, and the consequences of which, even we of the Western World must feel: of patriotism, heroism, military skill and statesmanship, never surpassed in history. The autnor writes with the weight and force of truth, and the great merits of his book are its reliability and strict impartiality.

The book is complete in every particular. It describes the causes of the war, and the events which preceded it; the opening campaign, and the first reverses of the French; the effect of these reverses upon the French people; the frantic effort to rescue the beaten army, and the terrible disasier of Sedan; the capture of the Emperor Napoleon, and an entire army; the Revolution in Paris; the rise and formation of the Republic; the flight of the Empress from Paris; the siege and surrender of Strasbourg and the frontier fortresses of France; the triumphal advance of the German armies to Paris; the efforts of Bazaine to escape from Metz, and the final surrender of his army; the investment and siege of Paris; the detailed history of this great siege; its plans, sorties, battles, successes and failures; the course of events in the beleagured city, given in the form of a full diary of the events of the siege; the campaigns on the Loire, and in other portions of France; the peace negotiations, the surrender of Paris, and the treaty; the naval history of the war; the diplomatic history on both the German and French sides; the history of the formation of the great German Empire; the proclaiming of King William Emperor, and the realization of German unity; the events of the civil war and second siege of Paris, its terrible scenes of bloodshed and vandalism, with a minuteness, graphicness and brilliancy, wichh leaves nothing to be desired. No intelligent person can afford to be uninformed as to these events which have left so deep an impression on the world's history, and few will fail to read this splendid work; or, having read it, to endorse it as the Standard American History of the war.

In this age of sensational literature, we cannot too highly commend this brilliant and thoughtful narrative to our readers. The book is handsomely bound, and illustrated with 150 maps, portrtis, battle scenes, and views of the principal localities connected with the war. No expense has been spared by the publishers to make it worthy of the support of the public, and we predict for it an immense sale, especially as its low price brings it whitdin the reach of all. It is published in both English and German, sold by subscription only, and the publishers want agents in every county.

Gen. Phil. Sheridan expresses his opinion of William I., Emperor of Germany, in the following language: "The Emperor William is a fine old gentleman, and a good General. He possesses personal courage and bravery in an unusually high degree. I myself have seen him under the heaviest fire at Gravelotte. Far from being under the influence of Bismarck, he has a firm, determined will of his own, which he knows how to carry out, even in opposition of Bismarck."

A Boston paper states that a wealthy resident of that city, age 75, has offered $30,000 to any young woman who will become his wife. He desires some one to be his companion, take care of him, and spend his money (he has a large fortune) in a liberal and graceful manner. Strange to say, no fair Bostonian has yet applied.

Proceedings of her People in County Convention Assembled.

Pursuant to a call the people of Pasquotank County, opposed to the Revolutionary Convention movement, met in public Convention at the Court House in Elizabeth City, on Saturday, July 1, 1871. At 10½ o'clock, A. M., the Chairman of the Executive Committee called the meeting to order, when on motion George D. Pool, Esq., of Elizabeth City, was called to preside over its deliberations. On taking the Chair he briefly acknowledged the honor conferred, and stated the object of the meeting to be to nominate a candidate Against Convention, adopt resolutions expressive of the sentiments of the law abiding people of the county and appoint an Executive Committee to serve for the ensuing year.

On motion B. F. Keaton, of Elizabeth City and Frank M. Godfrey, of Salem, were appointed Secretaries.

After music by the Elizabeth City Cornet Band, which was present, on motion of Dr. P. John the Chair appointed the following Committee on Resolutions, to wit: Dr. P. John, S. J. Halstead, Charles C. Price, J. Flemming, A. Morris, C. Guirkin and J. P. Overman.

On motion, the following were appointed a Committee to report the name of a Candidate to the Convention, to wit: T. A. Sykes, C. W. Grandy, Jr., J. Q. A. Wood, H. Cale, J. Russell, W. A. Price, R. Pendleton, R. Overton, J. Price, W. Morris, W. B. Pritchard, W. D. Morgan, W. Cartwright, C. Griffin, E. Dailey and Geo. D. Pool, Jr.

The Committee on Resolutions having retired, returned and reported the following:

RESOLUTIONS.

Whereas, the Democratic members of the present Legislature, many of whom obtained their seats by means of fraud, and others holding their places in direct violation of the plain provisions of the Constitution of the United States, have passed an Act submitting to the people of North Carolina, in a way unknown to our organic law, the question of calling a Convention, and at the same time providing for the election of delegates: Therefore be it resolved by the honest and law abiding people of Pasquotank County in Convention assembled:

1. That in our judgment the Convention Act referred to, is revolutionary, subversive of law and fraught with incalculable evil and danger, and that it should meet the condemnation and opposition of every friend of peace, law and order in the State.

2. That in our opinion it would be worse than madness to disregard the solemn warnings and decisions of the Legislatures of 1854 and 1860 on this grave subject, composed as those Legislatures were of the legal talent, moral worth and able statesmanship of the State, and now adopt the rulings and follow the counsel of the fanatical and partisan majority of the present Legislature, composed so largely as it is of inexperienced young men, hungry office hunters and political demagogues.

3. That although our present Constitution contains a few objectionable features which we would like to see altered and amended in a legitimate and constitutional way yet, we would prefer to see it done by the Legislative enactment plan than by the Convention method, believing the former to be cheaper to the tax-payers, safer in the present excited state of public feeling and much better suited to the interests of our people at this time.

4. That the leaders of the present Convention scheme are the same men who have contributed so much to ruin the Southern country by their folly, wickedness, and madness, and to follow them a second time in their Jacobin crusade against all our best interests and in their reckless hunt for office would not only be subversive of good Government, but would result in entailing upon our people, miseries unheard of and burthens unfelt before.

5. That such being our earnest conviction we believe it to be our duty as good and faithful citizens to firmly meet the issue forced upon us by voting solidly on the 1st Thursday in August next against the proposed revolutionary Convention scheme, that the edict may go forth that the institutions of this good "Old North State" are fixed and stable, that her people are in favor of order and peace, and that her organic law cannot be overturned and changed at any time by any party whenever it shall happen to get in power.

On motion the Resolutions were unanimously adopted and with great applause.

On motion, G. W. Cobb, Jordan Close and Miles Commander were appointed a Committee to wait on Hon. J. W. Albertson, of Perquimans, and invite him to address the Convention. During the Committee's absence the time was occupied with music by the Band.

The Committee having returned with Mr. Albertson, he was introduced to the meeting and proceeded to deliver an address of over two hours, unanswerably meeting every point and issue involved in the canvas now before the people.

After Mr. Albertson's speech the Committee on nomination reported the name of C. W. Grandy, Jr., which was received with cheers and unanimously adopted by the Convention. He accepted the nomination in a neat speech, promising to do his full duty in the canvas.

On motion of Thomas A. Sykes, Esq., the Chair was authorized to appoint a Committee of seven to compose and constitute the Republican Executive Committee for Pasquotank county for the ensuing year. A motion was also made that a canvassing Committee of two in each Township be appointed by the Chair.

The meeting then adjourned to 3 o'clock, P. M.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

At the hour abjourned to the Convention reassembled. After being called to order, and music by the Band, Wm. H. Smith, Esq., formerly of Pennsylvania, now a citizen of this county, was called upon to address the Convention. He proceeded to do so in a calm, logical and convincing speech for an hour, which was not only eargerly listened to but which gave much satisfaction to the audience. The balance of the day was occupied in speeches by T. A. Sykes, Dr. P. John and J. H. Shaw, Esq., The meeting adjoured at 6 o'clock, P. M., after music by the Band and three rousing cheers for the cause.

Europe.

From the papers of the 27th we learn Gambetta is a candidate for the French Assembly from one of the Paris districts. The prospects of the Government candidates in the coming election are favorable. The Communists, it is said, have decided to refrain from voting. A vessel from Havana to Greenock has been wrecked, and all on board lost. The Spanish Cabinet persist in their resignation. The revolution is spreading in Guatemala. Coal discoveries have been made in Peru.

From the papers of the 28th we see that the Prussian Army Corps system has been adopted by the French Government. The Republican Committee will publish their list of Assembly candidates to-day; it is known that Gambetta heads the list. The Longchamps review is fixed for to-morrow. It is reported that the removal of the Italian capital to Rome hes been postponed to October. The coal miners' strike in Wales is spreading. A subterranean fire under Sheffield excites apprehensions. Gen. Burke, one of the Fenian convicts, has been released from prison. Gen. Manteuffel has been given the command of the German troops in France.

The British naval officers have been instructed to accord important privileges to the American fishermen during the present season. The new French loan has all been taken. The Bonapartists are very active in circulating election documents. Another serious disturbance has has taken place at Strasbourg. The Republican Committee of Paris refused to present M. Gambetta as a candidate for the Assembly, but he has accepted a nomination from the Department of the Lower Seine. The United States forces in Corea have captured several forts, nearly 500 cannon, and inflicted heavy loss on the Coreans.

From the papers of the 30th we learn that the Minister of Finance has made a statement of the improved financial prospects of France. The Republican Committee has published several electoral lists, not being able to agree on a combined ticket. M. Rochefort is seriously ill. An archbishop in Rome is under arrest for conspiracy. A disastrous boiler explosion has taken place in England. The Emperor William has granted an amnesty to political offenders in Alsace and Lorraine.

General Summary.

Tuesday closed the 34th year of the reign of Queen Victoria.

It is not in order to speak of the unterrified Democracy in these days of new departures.

A child born in Manchester, Vt., last week, and now doing well, weighed twenty-four ounces.

Hartford complains of dead fish and worms in its water-pipes, and complaining shudders.

Congressman Dawes has presented the Athenæum in Pittsfield, Mass., with 800 volumes of Congress documents.

A Connecticut preacher has quit preaching and opened a Summer boarding house. He says he certainly makes more money.

Think of the voice that Senator Foote could raise for war when his common sentences average 100 words, and a champion period in a late Nashville speech ran over 287 words.

Kossuth is reported to have despaired of the cause of human freedom in Europe, and to talk of returning to this country to die here, because it is the only country where liberty has been from first to last preserved in its perfection.

The scribes are of little faith in Utah. Recently Bishop Price saw a snake in Utah Lake "sixty feet" long, and the doubting newspapers call on him to catch it and have it measured to save his reputation for veracity!

A memorial from sixty-five loyal residents of Fayette County, Alabama, represents Kuklux outrages of such frequency and boldness that the lives of loyal citizens are insecure, and that the civil authorities are overawed by the outlaws.

A Massachusetts paper asserts that Miss Amanda L. Folger, of Nantucket, has the longest and most beautiful jaw in the commonwealth. Every tooth is perfect, and it is seventeen feet in length. It is the lower jaw of a sperm whale.

Wm. A. Hearne, Esq., Editor-in-Chief of the Raleigh Telegram, was married at Beaufort, N. C., on Tuesday evening, week to Miss Sallie Street, daughter of Samuel R. Street, Esq., Proprieter of the "Ocean House."

Logan County, Illinois, is overrun with locusts, and the air is heavy with their shrill, monotonous notes. The ground for acres is honey-combed with the openings they have made in coming to the surface, and their cast-off shells strew the land on every hand.

Major Andrew Jackson Donelson died suddenly a few days ago, in the Peabody Hotel in Memphis, of cholera-morbus, age 72. He was graduated second in a class of 18 at West Point in 1822, was Private Secretary of Andrew Jackson during the two terms of his Administration, and was afterward Minister Plenipotentiary from the Republic of Texas to Berlin. On his return home, he succeeded Frank Blair, sr., as editor of The Washington Union, and was the candidate for Vice-President on the Fillmore ticket in 1860. During the past 10 years he has lived in retirement on his plantation near Australia, Mississippi.

The Labor Reformers in the New-Hampshire Legislature are twelve in number. Their desire, it is said, is to build up their organization and continue an independent political power, while the Democrats want to gobble up the Reformers and merge them in their own ranks.

The Alabany Law Journal tells this story: A witness was examined before a judge in a case, who required him to repeat the precise words spoken. The witness hesitated till he riveted the attention of the entire court upon him, then, fixing his eyes earnestly on the judge, began: "May it please your Honor, you lie and steal, and get your living by stealing." The face of the judge reddened, and he immediately said: "Turn to the jury, Sir."

Judge Rutland, of Darlington County, South Carolina, has been puzzled. He found in attendance upon his Court two grand juries, and he couldn't tell which was the genuine simon-pure article, one being drawn under the act of 1868, and the other under that of 1871. The matter was investigated and debated, and finally it was concluded that there was in fact no legal jury, grand or petit, in attendance on the Court. Such being the opinion of the entire Bar, and the presiding Judge, the Court was adjourned sine die.

From the Newbern Republican of Saturday last we clip the following; A man named Edward Brown, of Pitt county, fled to the swamps during the late war to avoid the draft, has been lately discovered living a hermit life in a den and settlement of his own in a dense thicket near the bank of the river. When first discovered he fled to his hiding place. Upon being pursued, he showed fight, but finally surrendered, and insisted upon refusing to go in the army. Upon being informed the war was ended about six years ago, he concluded to abandon his hiding place and return to the old plantation, where he fonnd many changes since the commencement of the rebellion. His only clothing was made from the skins of coons and other animals which he captured during the time. Having seen no one with whom to converse during about eight years he has nearly lost the control of language except a few profane words. His father and mother have both died during the past year.

MILLIONS Bear Testimony to their Wonderful Curative Effects. They are not a vile Fancy Drink, made of Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors doctored, spiced and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true medicine, made from the native roots and herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER and a LIFE GIVING PRINCIPLE, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the System, carrying off all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to directions, and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

They are a Gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, possessing also, the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and all the Visceral Organs.

FOR FEMALE COMPLAINTS, whether in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood or at the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters have no equal.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms are the offsprings of Dyspepsia.

They invigorate the Stomach and stimulate the torpid Liver and Bowels, which render them of unequaled efficacy in cleansing the blood of all impurities, and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.

FOR SKIN DISEASES, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-worms, Scald Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the System in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effects.

THIS WEEK'S ADVERTISEMENTS.

We call attention to the following new advertisements in this issue.

Superior Court.
New Coach Maker Shop.
Discussion.
Notice.
Assignees Notice.

Local and Personal.

☞ Watermelons are begining to appear in our market.

☞ Our Tomatoes are beginning to ripen. We have had them on our table for a week.

☞ The weather here thus far has been remarkably pleasant for the season.

☞ His excellency Gov. CALDWELL has appointed Lt. J. M. FOOTE, of Plymouth, Notary Public.

☞ The Steamer Hertford, Capt. BAGLEY, commenced her regular trips to Nag's Head on Saturday. The Hotel is now regularly opened.

☞ A correspondent from Jamesville, Martin county, writes us saying: "I think the Convention in this county will be voted down by a large majority."

☞ Our friend A. S. Butt, of New Hope, sends us an egg, laid by a black Spanish hen, weighing four ounces. Who'd object to paying a good price per dozen for such eggs?

☞ Is it true that the Democratic Convention in Dare last week was manipulated by a stranger from a neighboring State? Is it true that he organized it, made the motions, and put them to vote? Such is the report.

☞ The largest Tomato, of the Fegee Island variety, was left at our office on Tuesday by D. P. DAUGHTERY of Hertford. It weighed 21¼ ounces. It is a monster in size.

☞ We learn that Capt. B. B. BALLANCE, who moved from this place to Beaufort some twelve months ago, is to again make our little City his home. We welcome the Captain "home again."

☞ On Saturday last the old Market House on Water street was knocked down—to the highest bidder. Purchaser Mr. GRIFFIN PRITCHARD: price $186. It is to be removed within sixty days.

☞ A correspondent inquires how many churches there are in Raleigh. We believe about a dozen. But there are sinners enough to fill at least a dozen more when the Legislature is in session.

☞ GEO. D. POOL, Jr., has shown us the first cotton bloom we have seen this season. We have heard of several whose cotton has been in bloom some ten days. One sent us by Mr. WIGGINS was very fine.

☞ We were glad to see our young friends JAMES P. GRANDY and WALTER G. RUSSELL, with the firm of Miller Grandy & Roberts, Norfolk, Va., in town this week.

☞ The second fiscal year of the Manufacturing, Loan and Trust Company having expired on the 1st inst, its Bank officers have again declared a dividend of twelve per cent. The institution is in a healthy and flourishing condition.

☞ Tuesday—the Fourth of July—being a national holiday, the "boys" of the Office as well as the Editor, felt it due and proper as well as pleasant and agreeable to observe it. This simple statement we are sure is all the apology our readers will ask for the lack of matter in this issue.

☞ It is reported that a "Mind your own business" club is to be organized in our town soon. We are not sure but it would be of some service, especially to those who havn't time to sweep their own doorsteps because of their attention to their neighbors.

☞ The Conservatives of Gates county have nominated our friend MILLS S. EURE Esq., for Convention. In Bertie they have nominated D. C. WINSTON, Esq., Both good fellow personally. As there will be no Convention they'll not do us any harm politically.

☞ Our efficient Health Officer, believing that "cleanliness is next to godliness," is urging all our citizens to pursue a course during the warm weather that will avoid fevers and epidemics. By prudence, care and caution our town may be made quite as healthy all the year as any in the country.

☞ Mr. B. HOSLER of Carlisle, Pa., and A. EGOLF, of Landisville, Pa., have purchased two valuable vacant lots in this City upon which they contemplate erecting large Factories. Mr. JOHN MURPHY, of Middletown, has also purchased a farm on Little River this county. He proposes moving here in the fall.

☞ By the proceedings published in another column of our paper this week it will be seen that the meeting on Saturday was entirely harmonious. There was a large attendance and a good deal of enthusiasm was manifested. The resolutions adopted speak for themselves. The nomination of C. W. Grandy Jr., gives entire satisfaction. His name was unanimously reported by the Committee and unanimously adopted by the Convention. He will make a vigorous canvass. Speeches were made by Hon. J. W. Albertson, C. W. Grandy Jr., Wm. H. Smith Esq., James H. Shaw Esq., and the Editor of the NORTH CAROLINIAN, all of which were well received. The Elizabeth City Cornet Band—and there is no better in the country—was engaged for the occasion and enlivened the proceedings with most excellent music. To her sister counties Pasquotank sends her greeting, that her people most emphatically prefer "the Constitution as it is" to any revolutionary change.

☞ The candidates in Perquimans propose a joint discussion. See their advertisement.

☞ Our outside this week is nearly all taken up with the Address of the State Executive Committee. Read it carefully.

☞ J. M. WEED Esq., President of the Land and Lumber Company, has returned. We are pleased to learn that his Northern trip was a perfect success.

☞ Our townsman NATHAN OVERMAN has shown us a cabbage leaf, grown in his garden, which is a curiosity. The leaf is perfect but from the thick fibrous portion of it a separate stalk has grown as neatly as though it had been grafted, the latter already going to seed. We never saw anything like it before.

☞ A Friend from Belvidère informs us that "the prospects of the corn and cotton crop in that neighborhood are quite promising. The wheat and oats were almost a failure. Peaches plenty; apples scarce. The whortle berry crop very light. These the poor people miss very much, women often making from fifty cents to one dollar a day gathering them for the carters."

☞ In accordance with the instructions of the Convention on Saturday, the chairman announces the following named gentlemen to be the Republican Executive Committee of Pasquotank County for the ensuing year. Thomas A. Sykes, Chairman, Wm. Morris, John Russel, F. S. Proctor, Charles Guirkin, and C. Griffin. The Township Canvassers will be announced next week.

☞ The colored ladies held a Fair on the 4th for the benefit of the colored Methodist Church. Their receipts amounted to over $150.00. They return their thanks for the liberal patronage extended to them. They deserve great credit for their efforts.

☞ The farmers are about through with their work. Their harvest is gathered and corn and cotton mostly attended to. Those who desire it can begin to lay back in the shade during most of the hot season. All can have rest but the Editor. The "Devil" will call for copy and the patrons of the NORTH CAROLINIAN would "want to know the reason" if they didn't get their paper.

☞ We have received a new paper just started at Williamston, this State, called the Expositor. It is edited by ABNER S. WILLIAMS. It claims to be neutral in politics and has adopted the motto, "Hew to the line let chips all where they may." The paper looks well and its editorials evince ability. We wish it success. The complimentary allusions to us and to the NORTH CAROLINIAN are duly appreciated.

☞ We have been favored by B. J. Shanonhouse Esq., of Charlotte, with a small package of Japan clover seed. He says that section is abundantly supplied with the clover; that it makes fine grazing for stock and believes it will prove to be a good fertilizer. He further informs us that it is an excellent extinguisher of broom straw; that when it once attacks an old straw field, in two years it completely destroys the broom straw, growing luxuriantly in its stead.

☞ We are in Improvement man. We are not afraid of the taxation that is made for cleaning, repairing and improving ditches, drains, sidewalks and streets in the City. Whenever this is done the City gets back every dollar assessed on the people, whether in money or labor, or both. They get it all back again treble-fold. It not only improves the public taste and adds to the public comfort, but it enhanches the value of all the property in the City. Hence we feel that the City Council should be fully sustained in their laudable efforts to perform their full duty.

☞ The Fourth at this place passed off without any special celebration, and yet everybody seemed to have spent the day pleasantly, the majority of them sailing on the River in Steamboat, Schooner and smaller vessels. But the event of of the day was an Excursion and Pic Nic on the beautiful and fast sailing Schooners "Siam," Capt. D. G. ACKERLY, and the "Tuttle Dayton," Capt. NOAH ACKERLY. Special invitation had been sent out and in the morning a large number of our citizens—Northern and Southern, old and young—took passage on these vessels and spent the day on the classic Pasquotank. There was an abundance, and to spare, of everything good to eat and drink on board, the day was pleasant, and the kindness and very polite attention of "the ACKERLYS" made every passenger feel at home and glad they took the trip. Long may the Captain wave! and may they live to see many more anniversaries of our National Independence.

WHY DO YOU COUGH.—When it is in your power to relieve yourself; a few doses of Dr. Tutt's Expectorant will cure you and allay the apprehension of your friends; moreover, it is pleasant to take, it produces no nausea, and strengthens the Lungs and throat to resist attacks in the future. Mothers need not dread the Croup when they have a bottle of this valuable compound in the house.

When you go to Norfolk always stop at 35 Market Square.—remember the place—and see our popular friend A. E. Jacobs. At that place will be found a full and cheap assortment of Dry Goods, Clothing, Boots, Shoes, and Notions.

I embrace this method of saying to my patrons and the public that I will close my office on the 10th of August and be absent on a trip North about five weeks. All wishing my immediate professional services would do well to call before that date. I. T. ANDREWS Dentist.

A PROCLAMATION.

Whereas it has been made to appear to me on the written affadavit of John L. Wood, Sheriff of Pasquotank county, N C., that he has a capias in his hands for the arrest of Jonathan Tweedy, indicted for larceny in the county of Tyrell; that said Tweedy flees from justice, conceals himself and evades arrest and service of the usual process of the law.

And whereas it has been further made to appear, that said Tweedy goes constantly armed and is prepared, at all times, to resist the execution of lawful process—and that he lurks and conceals himself in the county of Pasquotank.

Now therefore, I, C. C. Pool, a Judge of the Superior Court, do issue this proclamation, commanding the said Tweedy to forthwith surrender himself—empowering and requiring the said Jno. L. Wood Sheriff to take such power with him as he shall think fit and necessary to search for, pursue and arrest said Tweedy; and if the said fugitive from justice shall continue to stay out, lurk and conceal himself, and do not immediately surrender himself, any citizen of the State may capture, arrest and bring him to justice, and in case of flight or resistance by him, after being called on and warned to surrender, may slay him.

Given under my hand and seal of office, at Elizabeth City, this 21st day of June A D 1871.
C. C. POOL,
Judge Superior Court.

be let slip. The exceeding tenderness of Conservative consciences in regard to the oath upon "adequate taxation" &c., required the compensation of some indulgence. This has probably been allowed upon the Homestead question, where a certain anticipation of sales of that sort of property, coexist with solemn vows not to touch the words in the Constitution which guarantee them! If you take the conscience in too tightly in some quarters, you necessarily let it out too far in others!

We have not said anything in regard the method in which it is proposed to call this Convention. The point has been thoroughly discussed recently, as well as formerly, about 1864. We shall not elaborate it here. It is enough to repeat, that the method—i.e., a call under a vote of a majority of the Assembly in times past as being revolutionary; that this doctrine was affirmed by resolutions of State Conventions of the Democratic party in this State before the late war; that it was acted upon in 1861 in reference to the call of the Convention of February, which did not sit; that language so extensively and notoriously discussed and construed was adopted without change into the present Constitution; and that recently the Governor, and the Supreme Court of the State, have pronounced such a call to be unconstitutional and revolutionary. Those who wish for other authority upon this question that can be had from persons who hold, or from others who seek offices that are at stake in the call of a Convention, we refer to the late Chief Justice Ruffin, the greatest lawyer we have at any time had in North Carolina. He was so convinced that such methods as the present are revolutionary, that he volunteered, upon a memorable occasion, to come out of retirement, and, in an elaborate paper, so advise his fellow-citizens.

We quote his language:

"Two modes of amending the Constitution are provided: One through the agency of the General Assembly, proposing an amendment for ratification by a vote of the People, which need not be considered here; the other, by a convention, called in a manner prescribed in the Constitution. It is obvious that in prescribing these two, all other modes are excluded by irrespectible inference. In respect to a convention, the words are, "No convention of the people shall be called by the General Assembly unless by the concurrence of two thirds of all the members of each House of the General Assembly." Letter of July 2nd. 1866, to Mr. Conigland.

Upon all points of law it may well be said of Chief Justice Ruffin, that to consult him, was, "as if—one had inquired at the oracle."

Those who disregard such an array of warning voices, appear to be regardless of social duty, and fatally bent upon mischief. We trust that the wisdom of the people at the election now at hand, will dissipate the cloud of apprehension which naturally arises in view of what seems to be, at any rate, such recklessness.

If otherwise, it is well for sober men to consider what may be the result. If any of the present officials of the State relying upon Chief Justice Ruffin's opinion, believe their removal under elections held by virtue of the proposed Convention, to be revolutionary and illegal, they may regard themselves bound by their oaths of office to resist the same. In such event the President of the United States is bound by his oath of office, supposing him to be equally deferential to that as well as the other opinions quoted above, to interfere with a strong hand and suppress all the consequences of the contemplated movement. It was done in the case of a Northern State (Rhode Island) by a Southern President, Mr. Tyler; it may be done again in the case of a Southern State, by a Northern President. Does anybody doubt it? Who does not feel that if it occur, it will not only shock, but shake down public confidence in the stability of everything that promotes prosperity in, or that attracts capital to North Carolina?

The very mildest form in which the question can be put, is, can North Carolina justify herself in resorting to doubtful expedients under such circumstances,—will she trace her path upon the very edge of danger,—when all know that another inauguration of violence within her limits will necessarily result in so much confusion, and so irretrievable ruin? She could not so justify herself, even if the purposes proposed were more clearly right than now they seem to be. But when it is added, that there is, at most, no need for the constitutional reform suggested,—that, standing alone, many of the suggestions deserve condemnation rather than endorsement, it is a wanton thing to call such convention! Improper ends by violent means is simply preposterous!

The Republican party of North Carolina have the same interest in the general peace and prosperity that their opponents have. They desire to see no public trouble revived; they wish to aid in raising and recovering the exhausted energies of the State. They prefer that all disorder in the State, if possible, shall be put down by the powers of the State, and, in the first instance, inasmuch as an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure, they desire that the people shall forbid this threatening measure.

It is in this interest, that representatives of the Republican party from every section of the State, at two different meetings in Raleigh unanimously adopted the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Republican party of North Carolina, hereby protesting that the pending call for a convention is unconstitutional, recognize that it will be most for the peace of the State that the people shall so decide at the ballot-box, and therefore recommend that an appeal be made them for that purpose, and that such appeal be prosecuted in the usual way, by a Campaign, and Candidate.

It is in this interest that we have been directed to address them. We trust that our designs herein may prove to be effectual.

In several important respects the Constitution is a great gain upon all that have preceeded it. In the large majority of its provisions it is a good Constitution, in all, it is tolerable.

The State is in an untried condition; in that condition it is not easy to say what constitutional provisions in some respects may be best. An experiment has been set on foot at great expense. Let us give it a fair trial—the rather that if we were now under compulsion to make constitution, no considerate man could be sanguine that such as we should adopt would answer even the purposes that we have in view. Let us walk carefully forward to our place in the future, avoiding, so far as we can all risks of failing to secure for our posterity a fair chance in the race now being made up for the fortunate men who are to come after us. Above all things, let us tread no step backward, upon pain of receiving maledictions of future generations, as those who, with great opportunities for escape fell under condemnation meet for such as are not discerners of the times.

With hearty good wishes for this State of ours, new North Carolina, and for all our fellow citizens, of every race—in this hour of danger to all, we earnestly ask that every man who wishes to avoid civil confusion, and every man who has not buried his energies and affections—who has not vowed to go mourning all his days over a dead past, will lend his aid to defeat this threatened Convention, and Retrogradation, and Revolution.

DESCRIPTIVE CATALOGUE.

OF VALUABLE

NORTH CAROLINA LANDS,

FOR SALE BY

GEORGE D. POOL.

Real Estate Agent,

ELIZABETH CITY, N. C.

In presenting my list of lands and other properties for sale, I would say that no section of the United States offers such inducements for capitalists and emigrants, as this section of North Carolina. In longevity and healthfulness, it will compare favorably with any where; and in easy and cheap transportation of products to market, in pleasantness of climate, in the sociability of the people, in great fertility, and durability of soil, no section can equal it.

A railroad will soon be built to Weldon, putting this place in direct communication by Rail, with the whole United States. This, together with our great fishing, farming and manufacturing interests, and certain early completion of already projected works of improvement for putting in nearer, cheaper and easier communication with the Ocean, will render this one of the most important commercial, and manufacturing points on the Southern country.

A Steam Saw and Grist Mill in the town of Nixonton 8 miles from E. City. This Mill has a fine wharf and store attached on deep navigable water, the engine is 40 horse power, and all in good order. It is one of the finest locations to be found any where for custom work, and for getting good saw logs easily and cheaply. Price $4,000 cash.

Adjoining the mill property is 40 acres of fine land on the River, with three houses, all for $1200. Near the same is a good two story dwelling and 13 acres of land for $2,000, and a good one story dwelling, with one acre of land for $300.

Also two fine farms in Pasquotank county, 10 miles from E. City, within half mile of church, school house and post office. One tract contains about 400 acres, with fair buildings and mostly cleared, and the other contains 200 acres, with good two story dwelling, large barn, and other outhouses, both are offered at $20 per acre, one third cash, balance in one and two years.

Also one other tract in Pasquotank county, containing 116 acres, within one mile of the town with fine buildings, mostly cleared and in cultivation. Price $25 per acre, one half cash, balance in 12 months.

A valuable site for a hotel at Nag's Head, 40 miles from Elizabeth City, and 50 miles from Edenton. This is situated immediately on the Ocean, and is a famous Summer resort for invalids, and those seeking health, comfort, and amusements during the summer months. It is in direct communication by steamboats and railroad with all parts of North Carolina, Virginia, and the North; and is equal in natural advantages to Newport, or Cape May. Visitors flock to this famous summer resort by hundreds and thousands, and a large amount of money can be made by a hotel. A charter has been obtained from the Legislature of N. C., for a joint stock company to build the hotel. There is now an old hotel on the spot, which could be cheaply repaired and bought for $3,000. This hotel, though imperfectly kept, cleared the proprietor last season, over $3,000. For a man or a company, having some capital, this is one of the finest chances to make money at hotel keeping to be found anywhere. The early attention of the public is invited to this property.

A fine steam saw and grist mill at Hertford, the county seat of Perquimans County, N. C., 18 miles from Elizabeth City. This mill has a fifty horse power engine, now in good running, two pairs of best French burr stones, and two upright saws. The house has a brick basement, and the building is large and in good order. There is one and a half acres of land belonging to this property, and a good two story dwelling, and other out-houses. The section of country adjacent abounds in the finest yellow pine, cypress, ash, poplar, and other valuable timber. This property originally cost $15,000, and is now offered at forced sale for the low price of $3,500, $7,00, cash, and the balance in six equal instalments, six months apart each with interest.

A fine farm and fishery in same county. The farm contains 400 acres of the finest land, lies immediately on Albemarle Sound where the water is 12 miles wide, and 18 to 20 feet deep, has got buildings, and fine neighborhood. The fishery is on the farm and goes with it. It has a new scine 2,500 yards long, and all the necessary boats, buildings, &c., (which cost over $15,000 two years ago.) The fishery alone, of a good season, will make from 5 to $10,000 profit to the owner. This property is offered at forced sale for the low price of $20,000, $7,000 cash, balance on easy times.

A store at South Mills, in Camden county, 20 miles from E. City, and 20 miles from Norfolk, lying on the canal where steamers pass daily. A fine chance for merchandize. Store is large with dwelling above containing six rooms, is in first rate order, has office, kitchen, dairy, and other necessary outhouses. Goods to the amt. of $50,000 per annum can be sold here, and at large profits. A splended stand for a country retail store. Price $2,500—one third cash, balance in one and two years.

A valuable tract of land in Camden county, at South Mills, on the Dismal Swamp Canal, lying on the canal for two miles, containing over 900 acres of land—two-thirds cleared, and in a fine state of cultivation, with good buildings, &c.; balance in valuable timber. Price $12,000, one-third cash, balance in one and two years, interest from January, 1871. This is a valuable farm for corn, wheat, and vegetables, and being midway between Elizabeth City and Norfolk, and located where steamers pass by the door daily, is a desirable and cheap property.

A fine farm of 600 acres within six miles of E. City, one mile front navigable water, and the best cotton farm in the State. It is also well adapted to raising corn and wheat. This farm has a splended two-story dwelling upon it, large barn, 40 by 60 feet, a large number of outhouses, by splended trees and shrubbery, is in a strong Union neighborhood, and altogether the most desirable place in the county. A little over one-half of this land is cleared, and the balance is covered with the finest yellow pine, poplar, ash and other timber. Price $30 per acre—one-third cash, balance in one and two years with interest. Title reserved.

Sixteen houses and lots in Elizabeth City, with good dwellings, out-houses, &c. Prices and terms reasonable.

A valuable farm in Perquimans county, N. C. near navigable water. Has a fine dwelling-house with ten rooms, in splended order, with splended barns and stables—all in first rate order. The farm is very productive in corn, oats, wheat, cotton and clover. It is one of the finest farms in the State and is now in good cultivation, contains 585 acres of land, about three-fourths cleared and under cultivation. Price $10,000, one-third cash January 1, next balance in two equal annual instalments with interest at the rate of six per cent.

A farm of 370 acres 8 miles from town by water, and 12 miles by land, is offered for sale for $10,000 in easy payments. This tract of land lies immediately on the River which is 4 miles wide and washes the farm its whole length on one side, and a branch of the River one mile wide, binds it on one end. The land is well adapted to raising corn, wheat, cotton, oats, peas, &c., lies high and dry, and is susceptible of the highest improvement. Fronting and looking over, as it does, two large sheets of navigable water, where steamers and sailing vessels are constantly passing, carrying freight and passengers to all parts of the country, its location and surroundings, are of the most fascinating and desirable character. There is a fishery on it, ready for working a seine 2,500 yards long, and which commands a portion of both streams of water, and can be made immensely profitable. The price charged is low, and the purchase a very desirable one. The buildings consist of a good two-story dwelling and out-houses.

A tract of valuable land, containing 356 acres, with fine two story dwelling containing 9 rooms and cook-room. Servant's house with 3 rooms, large barns and stables, all necessary and convenient out-houses, 3 tenant-houses near town, and immediately on the River. About 100 acres of this land is in fine wood and timber, balance in a fine state of cultivation. It has 8,000 grape vines one year old, 3,500 peach, apple and dwarf pear trees, five acres in strawberries which yielded an immence profit this year, ten acres in Lawton and other rare varieties of black-berries, 15 to 20,000 young peach trees with other choice fruits too numerous to mention. This farm has a public road on one side, and the River on the other, where strangers come daily to the landings to receive the fruits and vegetables, and carry them down to Norfolk, Baltimore, Phila., or New York. The land is finely adapted to raising corn, wheat, cotton, oats, and all other field crops.

The owner of this farm offers to sell in tracts, to suit purchasers, say in 50 to 100 acre tracts, and at prices ranging from 35 to $80 per acre, according to location, buildings, &c.

There is also on this farm a fine fishery, where a seine 1,000 yards long, and 20 feet deep is hauled every Spring. Herring, Shad, Rock-fish, Sturgeon and other valuable fish, are caught by thousands at every draw of the seine. And the profits are frequently large. This fishery of itself is worth nearly as much as is charged for the whole property. The terms will be liberal. This is probably the finest opportunity offered any where for a profitable investment.

☞ Fishery has an office, and two houses for hands besides fish house. Then some 500 to 1,000 loads of best fish manure on hand, besides over 5,000 loads of compost made ready for use. This goes with the farm.

A desirable house and lot in the town of Elizabeth City on the corner of two principal streets, the principal one, and situated in the best business locality in the town. The lot contains about two acres of land, and the buildings consist of a fair dwelling three stories high, containing eight rooms, all in good order, another two story building with four rooms and pantries, dairy, smokehouses, stables, &c. The dwelling has a good cellar under it. There is room on the front lot to erect two good stores, and they would occupy the best stand in the town for merchandize.

TO THE PUBLIC.

THE LAND AND LUMBER COMPANY having a large amount of Real Estate of their own to dispose of, and their business having increased to such an extent, they think it prudent to decline acting further as Commission Agents for the sale of lands belonging to others. They will however be glad at all times to furnish every facility to parties coming to Elizabeth City with a desire to look at the country and make purchases if they find it to their interest to do so.

The following list of property, owned by the Company, is offered for sale on the most reasonable terms. Their object now is to acquire a larger monied capital for the purpose of further developing their unimproved lands and carrying out their original design of increasing the Commerce and General Trade of Elizabeth City.

As there are others in the Commission Business, parties are referred to their advertisement for further information.

ELIZABETH CITY.

The following desirable list of Properties in Elizabeth City are offered at very reduced prices for cash or on time payments at rates which make any of them excellent investments for capitalists. We feel confident that this City is destined to become a large place and property will advance rapidly. Emigration is now tending Southernward and the feeling is in universal favor toward Elizabeth City.

A large two-story dwelling known as the Parsonage, with fine double Piazza, front and back, large out kitchen, stables, carriage house, with 17 acres of ground well enclosed. This ground is all within the corporation of the City, and is well situated to lay out in building lots and make out of it ten fold the price asked for it.

A two-story dwelling containing ten rooms, 10,000 gallon cistern and all necessary out-houses, with large lot. Situated on Main Street. A Vacant Lot no better located and not so large as this was sold recently for $1600 cash.

A large brick store house and wharf situate on Water street; in E. City, comprising three lots with 400 feet of water front, permanently wharfed for the accommodation of large vessels. There is erected on these lots a large two-story brick building, 50 by 80 feet, well fitted up for a wholesale or retail trade at present occupied by the "Yankee Store."

A large wood store on west side of Water street 36 by 60, two stories high, being one of the best stands on Water street for merchandizing.

A House and Lot on Riverside Avenue. House 20ft front by 50 ft deep. Containing eight rooms with Pantry and Cellar, all well finished, modern style, and having all necessary out buildings. The lot contains a front of 400 ft, and would be a good location for a large shop or foundry as one whole side fronts on the water.

Also a large number of Wharf Lots, Mill Lots and Vacant Lots at very low prices, some of which are enumerated below. The Wharf Lots are 200ft deep and will be sold to any size desired along the River. Among them are some most eligible situations for Store Houses, Mills and Manufactories of any kind as there is a fine harbor immediately in front of them, having 30ft of water, sufficient for vessels of any capacity. Along Pennsylvania Avenue are offered some of the finest and choicest lots, for dwellings in town at prices varying according to location. This will be the finest street in town, is 80 feet wide, size of Lot 100ft front by 200ft deep. There are now a number of first class residences being erected on this street. Immediately in the vicinity of these Lots the Company have erected a large Planing Mill, Sash, Blind and Door Factory at a cost of near $20,000 and also their Saw Mill at a cost of near $15,000. That now is the proper time to invest in those Lots there can be no doubt, as they will double in value in a very short time. Lots not near so good as these, are now selling in other parts of the City at more than double the price asked for these.

VACANT LOTS.

Lots Nos. 150, 155, 158, 161, 163, 165, 167, 170, 172, 175, 178, 180, 182, 185, 187, 190, 193, 195, 198 and 200, situate on Pennsylvania avenue, in the new extension of Elizabeth City, all choice lots, intended for the better class of residences. Size of lots 100 feet front by 200 feet deep. Price varying, according to location, from $100 to $1000.

TOWN LOTS.

Lots Nos. 250, 253, 255, 256, 258, 261, 263, 266, 267, 268, 271, 283, 285, 287, 288, 289, 291, 296, 299 and 300, situated on various Streets in the new extension of Elizabeth City, size of lots 50 feet front by 100 feet deep, at prices varying from $25 to $100.

MILL LOTS.

Four Mill-Lots situated on Knobb's Creek, so that logs can be taken from the creek to the mill. These lots have 200 feet each of water front, and over 600 feet deep to Mill street, and are choice sites. The purchaser will also have the right of storage for logs in the boom.

PASQUOTANK COUNTY.

The Land and Lumber Company also offer for sale, one thousand acres of their timbered land along the Main Road leading from Elizabeth City to Hertford and Edenton, Said land heavily wooded, soil very rich and about four miles from Elizabeth City. This land will be sold in lots to suit purchasers and at the low price often dollars per acre.

They also offer a tract of three thousand acres in Lots to suit purchasers, near the Pasquotank River, ten miles from Elizabeth City and three miles from South Mills. This land is heavily set with wood and also has upon it a vast amount of saw timber, and has a most excellent soil. This is a fine location for a small Colony. There is now a Public Road running directly through it. This tract is offered at the low price of eight dollars per acre if sold to one party, or at only a fraction more if divided into small lots.

The Company will also sell their farm of 250 acres two miles from Elizabeth City. 125 acres cleared and under good cultivation, well fenced, having upon it two dwelling houses, one new and the necessary out buildings wanted on a farm, and will be sold on very reasonable terms.

Also another farm one mile from Elizabeth City containing one hundred acres, between thirty and forty acres cleared and under cultivation, the balance is now being cut off and is nearly ready to be cleared up and cultivated. This property is very desirable being so near the City though for reasons first given will be sold at a very low price.

We have a finely timbered tract of land situated on the Albemarle Sound twenty miles from Elizabeth City, containing 124 acres. Good timber land bordering on the water is valuable both for wood as well as saw timber as water transportation affords a good margin for wood, say one dollar per cord. This will also make good farm land—will be sold for one thousand dollars.

Also one other tract of land containing 154 acres situated immediately on the Pasquotank River ten miles from Elizabeth City, valuable for wood, and is excellent farming lands, would be sold for six dollars per acre.

GATES COUNTY.

The Land & Lumber Company have a tract of 350 acres of timbered land one half mile from Chowan River and three miles from Winton the county seat of Hertford county. This body of land is well timbered and will be sold at the low price of three dollars per acre.

☞ The most direct and cheapest route is to go to Baltimore by N. C. R. R., then Bay Line steamer to Norfolk, Va., then steamer to Elizabeth City, N. C.
